MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT: Report to USIB on Measures Taken to Enhance Protection of Classified Intelligence

REFERENCES:

- A. USIB-D-9.2/39, Memorandum For USIB Principals, dated 23 April 1971, "Guidance Governing Disclosures of Classified Intelligence"
- B. USIB-M-605, dated 7 October 1971, Minutes of 7 October 1971 USIB Meeting

1. On 23 April 1971 the Chairman of USIB distributed to USIB Principals copies of a coordinated document entitled, "Guidance Governing Disclosures of Classified Intelligence." The Chairman stated in his transmittal memorandum that he would call for periodic reports from the Principals on measures taken within their respective agencies to implement this guidance.

2. At the USIB meeting on 7 October 1971 in Executive Session the Chairman, noting that nearly six months had passed since the circulation of the new guidance, requested each USIB member to report by early November on measures taken within his agency to implement the new security guidelines.

3. Please prepare for my signature a coordinated report to the Chairman of USIB on measures taken within CIA to enhance the protection of classified intelligence information including that:
